TRIED TO SAVE HIS BROTHER

Younger Mussetter Said To Have Perished In Effort To Help His Brother

The story of the fight for life by Lathrop Mussetter, one of the victims of the Windsor hotel fire at Regina, as revealed by the finding of the body, tells of a desperate chance to reach the fire escape says the Standard. The body, when found, had a blanket wrapped about the head, and although burned and charred almost beyond recognition, the blanket stuck there and told the tale of his escape.

It is supposed that fighting blindly with the smoke that entered his room on the second floor, Mr. Mussetter was near escape when he apparently tried the window, and seeing the height of the drop and probably realizing that escape that way meant certain death on the pavement below decided to make his way out through the hall. Placing his head below the smoke, which rose upward with the night air, he took a deep breath, and then withdrew into the room. He apparently seized a blanket and placed it over his head, and then he turned to the south so as to make for the fire escape. A few feet away was the window at the outside of which was life and safety, and doubtless the unfortunate Mussetter was making that way. But death overtook him in a most awful form before he reached the window. The fight for life was cut short almost before it had begun. Probably as he ran down the hall, groping amid the blinding smoke for the window leading to the fire escape, the floor gave way, and Mussetter went down into the fiery furnace below to an awful death amidst the terrific heat of the burning debris. There is a probability that he became suffocated and fell before the floor gave way, but that is hardly probable, as the body rested on its back. Had the man been overcome with the smoke and fallen on the hallway floor, there to die, he would in all probability have rested with his face down.

Bulletin Special.
Regina, Nov. 26.—Hon. Walter Scott received the following telegram from Mackenzie King this afternoon, dated Lethbridge:—
"Reply from the company to my letters received yesterday at 4 o'clock, was of a nature to facilitate settlement immediately. I had a further conference with the men and the company and arranged for a joint conference between the representatives of both. This conference lasted from ten o'clock till nearly two this morning and will be continued at eleven. The result of the conference will be submitted to the body of men at a meeting called for tonight. We seem to have arrived at a basis of settlement and I have confident expectations the strike will end today."

MEDICINE HAT FATALITY

Medicine Hat, Nov. 24.—Last night the body of a man was found frozen into the ice of Ross creek, between Parnall's brick yard and the main trail leading east over Porter hill. The discovery was made by a Galician, who was taking a short cut home along the bed of the creek. The police were notified and the remains were brought into the city. The body was identified as that of Thos. Armstrong, a foreman of the construction gang at Dunmore junction. He was last seen in Medicine Hat on Saturday, and apparently got lost in trying to take a short cut across the prairie to the junction. The theory is that he fell over the bank on to the ice, and, being stunned, lay there until he froze to death. The body was shipped to the deceased's former home in Woodford, Ont., today.

JUBILEE SINGERS.

The Carolina Jubilee singers appeared in the Edmonton opera house last night before an audience that should have been larger for the quality of the program rendered. The concert was full of sparkle and fun and kept the audience in good humor. The numbers were for the most part short and simple and called for the constant "encore" which were readily responded to. Mrs. Raden the contralto has an exquisite alto voice, and Mrs. Wilson has a clear lyric soprano of excellent quality. The program consisted of a number of old time camp meeting and plantation songs full of melody and pathos. The company are especially good in their imitative songs and Walter Carter's piano solos, imitations of the mocking bird's songs and on the battlefield, were thoroughly realistic.

THE ACME CO., LTD.

An important business change in the city of Edmonton is announced today. The staff of clerks, accountants and department managers will be maintained practically in their same positions by the new corporation. It is the intention of the new company to carry on the retail business largely conducted by the Revillon firm on a larger and broader scale, and provision is being made for additional extensions to the retail premises beyond what have already been carried out.

The above change it is announced has been under negotiation for some time and has been rendered necessary by the enormous growth of the wholesale business of Revillon Bros. The Edmonton Branch of Revillon Bros. was established here in 1902. The present stores were open for business on October 1st of that year. NEBRASKANS COMING

Calgary Herald: Government Immigration Officer Bennett, of Omaha, Neb., who has charge of the government work in that state, is in the city today and returns next tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Bennett is very well acquainted with the west having made his first trip to Calgary in 1884. Since that time he has seen the rapid advancement of this city and the faith in the country has made it easy for him to do good work in helping Nebraska to sunny Alberta.

To show his faith in the country he has several investments in various portions of the province, which shows that he is not talking anyone to do what he does not believe in himself. Mr. Bennett has not been in Calgary since last winter, owing to ill health, and during that time he has found a remarkable change in the city and the prosperity, in his opinion is not at all likely to subside, but will continue to grow. Nebraska will send 10,000 more this year than it did last year, in the opinion of the Immigration official. The satisfied people from the state who have just back good accounts to their friends, and they are proving the best immigration agency in the country could have. This year's fair will no doubt tend to increase the immigration from other sections of the State, though he is not so well conversant with conditions in the other States as he is in his own particular district.

THE COMPANY'S VIEW

Mr. Jamieson intimated to the council on Friday evening that he considered the terms of the tentative agreement quite liberal toward the city. With all respect to Mr. Jamieson the gentleman's viewpoint is a mistaken one. The city is not asking terms liberal or illiberal from the C. P. R. In this case the company, not the city, is the party seeking terms, and the question is not whether or not the terms are liberal to the city, but whether they are too liberal toward the company.

On the other hand, if Mr. Jamieson considered the tentative agreement unusually favorable to the city or unusually hard on the company why did he not throw the agreement overboard and apply to the railway commission for the privilege to enter the city under the provisions of the Railway Act? The only purpose the company could have in clinging to the agreement rather than going direct to the commission would be the hope of securing under the agreement concessions which would not be allowed by the commission without such agreement; and the fact that the company preferred to press for the ratification of the tentative agreement is the best evidence they could give that they had more to hope from the agreement than from the railway commission acting solely on the basis of the Railway Act.

Whatever may have been lacking in the conclusiveness of this evidence was supplied by the contention of Mr. Bennett that the city could not legislate away the power of the railway commission. This specious platitude may contain a truth but it also conceals another truth—that the city can legislate away a case which it might in future desire to present to the railway commission. To argue that the commission has the power to set aside agreements, to destroy contracts and to annul obligations, may be legally correct, but the attitude of the company certainly compares badly with the contention of its solicitor. If the commission has such power and may properly exercise it, then it makes no difference to the C. P. R. whether the closing of Peace and Athabasca avenues be called "temporary" or "permanent," because in either event they would be reopened when future development justified the city in demanding them to be reopened. If the company did not believe that an agreement "permanent" closing these avenues would tie the hands of the railway commission the company would not consider itself better protected by a "permanent" than by a "temporary" closing. The language of its solicitor to the contrary, the fact that the C. P. R. is dissatisfied with a temporary closure is the most tangible proof the company could give of a belief that the railway commission would consider an agreement for permanent closing to mean what it said.

THE HINDOOS INVASION

Several hundred Hindoos have landed at Victoria and Vancouver recently and the movement is exciting interest throughout the Dominion. The people are claimed to be totally unsuited both to the climatic, social and industrial conditions. By what agency they were persuaded to come to Canada or whether they came entirely on their own initiative is unknown. If they were induced to come it was apparently by an agency whose interest in them ceased when they were landed. Without work and their small savings apparently exhausted they have become helpless wanderers about the streets. The difficulty of the situation is that they are British subjects, many of them veterans decorated by medals for valor displayed in the empire's wars. Their migration must be stopped by imperial rather than colonial authority. The question of the hour, however, is how to deal with those already here. They are living by hundreds in the streets and alleys of the coast cities and begging from door to door for food. Necessity is the mother of crime and unless these conditions are changed it need not excite wonder if the unfortunates are driven to lawlessness and violence. The prospect is serious enough to be forestalled by some measure of emergency. Either or both the Provincial and Dominion governments might take the matter in hand and provide them with temporary occupation on some needed works in which they would not come into serious competition with the white laborers. Or temporary relief might be provided by arranging for such occupation with large industrial concerns. In the meantime negotiations could be opened with the Imperial government to have the movement stopped and also to have those who have migrated removed to a country for whose climatic, social and industrial conditions they are better adapted.

ALBERTA MUSICAL FESTIVAL

The competitions will take place in the morning. In the evening a festival of song will be given by the massed choirs. In the first portion of the program the choir will be heard in selections on which they had been cued during the day. The second portion will consist of a cantata sung by all the choral societies.

A judge for the festival will be chosen among prominent musicians in the East or Central West, and brought to Edmonton. This artist will also act as conductor for the massed choirs at the festival. One definite rule has been made by the executive: that all competitors in choral and choral societies competing must have been bona-fide members of such choir or societies for at least two months.

The executive intend to ask the city council to grant $250 toward the exchanging and initiating this first musical festival in Alberta.

CHURCH NOTES.

The Young Men's Club of McDougall church meets on Thursday evening. Impromptu speeches will comprise the program.

The official quarterly board of McDougall church meets on Wednesday evening at 8 p.m.

Commissioner Coombs will lecture in First street Presbyterian church on Thursday Nov. 29th, on "Today and Tomorrow of the Salvation Army." His Honor Lieutenant Governor Bulyea will preside.

The formal opening of the R. C. of the Immaculate Conception, Kinsmen avenue will take place on December 8th Sunday high mass was celebrated in the church by Rev. Father Hetu.

The first anniversary of First Baptist church was held Sunday. The Rev. T. Stackhouse was to have preached. Shortly after arriving on Saturday evening Mr. Stackhouse was taken ill. His place was taken by Rev. Mr. Patterson of Calgary whose deliverance both morning and evening were highly appreciated. The choir prepared special music which was effectively rendered. The first year of this church's history has been one of good success. It is but a little over a year ago since the congregation left their old church on Howard street. The first pastor of the congregation was Rev. Dr. Macdonald of Leduc. Rev. C. B. Freeman succeeded him in the pastorate for four years. Then followed Rev. A. W. McDonald under whose charge the congregation has grown and prospered.

In Grace church Sunday the pastor referred to the laxity of city officials regarding disorderly houses in the north end of the city and the action of the council in offering the same inducement to a brewery as to any other enterprise. Law and the administration of law he said should be a reflection of public sentiment. It was the duty of the ratepayers to select aldermen whose administration would make for the moral cleanliness of the community.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF FARMERS' INSTITUTES.

The eleventh annual meeting of the American Association of Farmers' Institute workers was held at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on November 12, 13 and 14. The president of the association was G. C. Creelman, the head of the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, Ontario. Other Canadians who attended the meetings and took an important part were Messrs. Putnam, president of Farmers' Institutes for Ontario; Murray, superintendent for farmers' institutes for Saskatchewan; H. A. Craig, superintendent of farmers' institutes for Alberta and Prof. Riddick, of Ottawa.

The new officers of the association for 1907, and President E. A. Burnett, of Lincoln, Neb., and John Hamilton, of Washington, secretary-treasurer. Mr. H. A. Craig returned to the city last Saturday. Interviewed by the Bulletin he said the meeting was a great success and that it did one good thing to meet so many talented men who were giving so much time and study to this universal subject of agriculture. It was a real inspiration to meet so many enthusiastic and anxious to get and give information and obtain a larger idea of the scope of the farmers' problems.

Among the most important subjects discussed was "Organizing the Farmers." What forms of organization should the institute advise? It was the opinion of the meeting that the farmers should organize to further the interests of their class along the lines of production and education in the science of farming. There should also be organization along the lines of handling and distribution of the farmers' products. Particular stress was laid upon organizing the farmers to increase the convenience and happiness of rural life and make the farmers' home as attractive as that of his city neighbor. The farmers throughout the United States and Canada are disgruntled and lax in this respect. The genuine culture and happiness is possible in the country as in the most opulent and should organize and establish rural telephone systems and adopt other modern conveniences that hitherto have been regarded as peculiar to large towns and cities.

The improvement of the county fairs was thoroughly discussed and some of the modern city. In the older districts the suggestions received will be put into operation next year at the Alberta fairs.

Two other subjects of vital interest and intimately related to the usefulness of the institute were discussed. These subjects were "Crop production" and "Live stock improvement." What can the institute do to assist in developing the live stock industry and increasing and improving the product of the field. The delegates were agreed as to the efficiency and completeness of the work done by the agricultural colleges and experiment stations. The real difficulty lies in conveying the results to the farmers. The solution lies, in the opinion of the association, in a normal training for those who are delegated to address farmers' institutes that they may be instructed in the art of teaching and giving the farmer methods and subject matter that he most requires.

Again institute work should be adapted, and appropriately selected for the season of the year when the meeting is held.

In regard to live stock improvements the delegates were of the opinion that stock judging schools were a necessity at various points in the province and controlled by competent expert men, with the proper materials. These should consist of the best types of the best breeds which could be transported from place to place for object lessons. Instructions should be given both in breeding and feeding. To show the good points of a type it is also important to have scrub grades for contrast. These will be easily obtained.

Mr. Craig says the best address at the meeting of the association was given by H. L. Bailey, of Cornell University on "The Rural School." How can the farmers' institute improve the rural school? The rural school teacher should be educated carefully along the lines of agriculture and natural study, and give knowledge to the child that can only be expressed in the activities of farm life.

President Creelman made a splendid presiding officer, and the able manner in which he conducted the session and his stirring address as retiring president was highly appreciated by the Canadian delegates.

Daily Market Letter

Winnipeg, Nov. 26.—Wheat.—With a good array of bullish statistical news a marked improvement in prices resulted. The opening range was barely steady and a slight decline followed. There was good support on the soft spots and prices were advanced half a cent by easy stages. The professionals had calls bought and they proceeded to secure what profit there was in sight, and this rather heavy selling brought liquidation and some short selling, and prices receded to the opening level. Here the support again became good a quick advance to the former high level was scored, but selling pressure again became acute and this close was steady and 1-4 cent higher than Saturday's final figures. World's shipments last week 11,240,000 but against 10,512,000 the previous week and 12,412,000 bushels a year ago. The "On Passage" statement showed only 23,793,000 afloat against 33,944,000 bu. last year. Cables were steady to a shade higher. The visible supply statement was a surprise increasing 2,225,000 bu. against less than 1,000,000 bu. increase expected, on last year's increase of 2,213,000 bushels. Practically all this increase resulted because of heavy shipments by water from Duluth and Canadian ports the shippers availing themselves of low rates. Minneapolis stock decreased 25,000 bushels for two days. Primary receipts are very much smaller than a year ago. Shipments were also lighter. Clearances 1,088,000 bu. the largest wheat and flour clearances this year.

CALGARY MAN CALLED SUDDENLY

Albertan—J. B. Smith, K. C. was found dead in his rooms in the Armstrong block on Saturday afternoon. The sudden death of the city solicitor will be a shock to many people in Western Canada. He has been a resident in Calgary for more than 22 years, during which time he has been a very prominent citizen. Mr. Smith was born 56 years ago in Lindsay, Victoria County, Ont. He was the son of Judge Smith of that city. He was educated at Toronto, of which university he was a graduate in arts. He practiced his profession in Lindsay for a few years, being in partnership with J. A. Barron, now a county judge in Ontario. He came to Calgary as stated above in 1884. He has been city solicitor for seven years. Mr. Smith was a member of the Bow River Masonic Lodge. He took a keen interest in amateur sport being responsible to a large extent for the formation of the Victoria Baseball club and the Victoria hockey club. He was also an enthusiastic courier. He was unmarried.

1. The rapid extension of sewerage and water mains throughout all parts of the city, in order to protect health and home.
2. The immediate construction of an electric street railway, located where the greatest feeders of population to it live.
3. The application of better business methods in conducting civic business, both in the council meetings, and in the operation of the various municipal plants. An early budget is most desirable.
4. The erection of a market building on the market square, enabling the consumers and producers to come together to trade, thus reducing the cost of living in Edmonton.
5. The reduction of the amount spent annually on grants, donations and banquets. A fixed sum should be allotted for this purpose, not to exceed 1-4 of a mill on taxes.
6. The formation of an Industrial Committee of the city council.
7. The holding of all franchises by the city.

Coming! Learn Dress-Making

In four days, or learn by mail in your spare time at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sanders, of the Sanders' Dress-Cutting School, Stratford, Ont., Can., will visit this place on date given at bottom of advertisement, and will show how you can learn to cut, fit and put together everything in dress-making. Course consists of eight lessons which are:

- 1st Lesson—How to take a correct measure. How to use the Elite Ladies' Tailor System to fit anyone.
- By the time you are through with this lesson you will know as much about cutting as if you worked in a shop six months or a year, and gave from $5.00 to $25.00 for a system. In this lesson you test the perfect fit of system by making a waist for yourself or friend.
- 2nd Lesson—How to cut the different styles in shirt waists.
- 3rd Lesson—How to cut the different styles in lined waists, by draping, pleating, pokes, reverses, boleros, etc., and putting all together. Fitting and particulars to finishing.
- 4th Lesson—How to cut by drafts all kinds of yokes, berthas, collars, girdles and cuffs.
- 5th Lesson—How to cut different kinds of sleeves and put together.
- 6th Lesson—Everything about wrappers and Pattern dress.
- 7th Lesson—How to draft to cut skirts by measurement by using the rule of system only; any kind of skirt, no matter what style, can be more easily cut than by using patterns.
- 8th Lesson—Finishing skirts, cutting coats, etc.

A few reasons why it is the best way to learn. (1) Because it costs no more than the making of one dress. (2) It only takes four days personally, or a couple of weeks by mail. (3) The whole family can learn from system and lessons you take home. (4) I have had thirteen years' experience in dress-cutting and teaching. Have taught over six thousand pupils and all were more than satisfied. I guarantee to give $500 to any one who can't make a perfect fit after they are through—and you don't pay until you are through and are perfectly satisfied. Don't forget to call on Saturday. Farmers' daughters, and ladies who have worked at dressmaking, or apprentices, specially invited.

MRS. WM. SANDERS,
Inventor and Instructor.

Will be at Yale Hotel, Calgary, from Saturday, November 24th, to December 1st. At Windsor Hotel, Edmonton, from Saturday, December 8th to 15th, showing method of teaching and enrolling pupils. Will be teaching in each place the week following. Don't miss this opportunity if you have any desire to learn dressmaking.

INDIGESTION

A FARMER'S PAIN ENDED.

Have you digestive trouble in any form? If so, why do you overlook the fact that Bileans are specially compounded for your case? Purely vegetable, they contain no alcohol, no harmful drugs, no poisonous compounds, nothing to create the pill habit! They are Nature's own remedy. Read this farmer's testimony.

Mr. T. J. Richardson, of Granby, says: "For months I had indigestion and endured great pain. No matter what kind of food I took it seemed to cause wind and give rise to agony. This sort of experience, so long continued, brought on very depressed feelings. My strength failed and altogether I was reduced to a very low and weak state. When I stopped I hardly knew how to raise myself. The pain was so acute. All the remedies I tried proved useless until one day I saw a report about Bileans and tried them. Before I had finished the first box I felt a great deal better, so I persevered, and after taking several boxes the ailment left me entirely. Now I feel as well as I ever did in my life."

Bileans are a cure for headache, constipation, piles, liver trouble, female ailments, skin eruptions, hiccups, sick headache, bad taste in the mouth, flatulency, diarrhea, fainting, buzzing noises in the head, wind pains, nervous, colds, rheumatism, etc. Obtainable from all druggists, and also at all chemists, or direct from the Bilean Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price, 8 boxes for $2.50.

ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

Synopsis of Canadian North-West. Homestead Regulations

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-West Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person, the sole head of a family, or male over 18 years of age to the extent of one quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for homestead entry or inspection must be made in person by the applicant at the office of the local Agent or Sub-Agent.

An application for entry or inspection made personally at any Sub-Agent's office may be wired to the local Agent by the Sub-Agent, at the expense of the applicant, and if the land applied such application is to have priority and the land will be held until the necessary papers to complete the transaction are received by mail.

In case of "personation" the entry will be summarily cancelled and the applicant forfeit all priority of claim. An applicant for inspection must be eligible for homestead entry, and only one application for inspection will be received from an individual until that application has been disposed of.

A homesteader whose entry is in good standing, and not liable to cancellation, may, subject to the approval of Department, relinquish it in favor of father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister, if eligible, but to no one else, on filing declaration of abandonment.

Where an entry is summarily cancelled, or voluntarily abandoned, subsequent to institution of cancellation proceedings, the applicant for inspection will be entitled to prior rights of entry.

Applicants for inspection must state in what particulars the homesteader is in default, and if subsequently the statement is found to be incorrect in material particulars, the applicant will lose any prior right of re-entry, should the land become vacant, or if entry has been granted it may be summarily cancelled.

Letter.—A settler is required to perform the conditions under one of the following plans:—
(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.
(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader, residing on a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such homesteader the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.
(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements may be satisfied by residence upon such land.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.
SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST MINING REGULATIONS.
Coal.—Coal lands may be purchased at $10 per acre for soft coal, and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 200 acres can be acquired by one individual or company. Royalty at the rate of ten cents per ton of 2000 pounds shall be collected on the gross output.

Quartz.—A free miner's certificate is granted upon payment in advance of $5 per annum for an individual, and from $50 to $100 per annum for a company according to capital.
A free miner, having discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim 1,500 x 1,500 feet.
The fee for recording a claim is $5. At least $100 must be expended on the claim each year or paid to the mining recorder in lieu thereof. When $200 has been expended or paid, the locator may, upon having a survey made, and upon complying with other requirements, purchase the land at $1 per acre.

The patent provides for the payment of a royalty of 2-1/2 per cent on the sales.
Placer mining claims generally are 100 feet square; entry fee $5, renewable yearly.
A free miner may obtain two leases to dredge for gold of five miles each for a term of twenty years, renewable at the discretion of the Minister of the Interior.

The lessee shall have a dredge in operation within one season from the date of the lease for each five miles. Rental $10 per annum for each mile of river leased. Royalty at the rate of 2-1/2 per cent collected on the output after it exceeds $10,000.

TOFIELD

Correspondence.

The concert and sale of work given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid was a huge success from every standpoint, attendance, program, supper and finance. The new school house was taxed to its utmost capacity; people coming for twelve miles around. The program was so good that we cannot particularize; unless we mention the duet by Miss Ora Manafrey and Miss Gwendolyn Bird and the club singing by Miss Jennie Harrison. The ladies deserve credit for the success attending their efforts to provide a pleasurable and profitable evening.

Another lumber yard has started in our midst, an off-shoot of the Vegreville Lumber Co.

Teams are coming to our coal mines from Lamont, Vegreville, Chipman and Camrose. The demand keeps well ahead of the output.

It is rumored that another coal mine is to be opened up near the town.

It is also rumored that we are to have a ten thousand dollar hotel.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Felix Farody is seriously ill and trust he will speedily recover.

Beaver Lake is becoming famous for its fisheries. Mr. J. O. Phillips took a sleigh load of fish to Camrose.

PORT SASKATCHEWAN

Correspondence.

Mr. H. Sancier of the Inland Revenue Department at Calgary is in town on business.

Friends of Miss Jessie Walker will be pleased to learn that she has so far recovered from a most serious attack of typhoid fever as to be able to be removed from the temporary hospital to the manse, and we have every hope that she will be in her accustomed place in the school in the course of a week.

We understand the much talked of skating rink is to be built almost immediately, at the corner of Belcher avenue and Government street. This will afford an excellent opportunity for both young and old of breaking in on the monotony of our winter season, which has set in unusually early this year.

The Polmutter Sisters Orchestra gave two concerts here this week and fully sustained the reputation which had preceded them. They are undoubtedly the most clever band of musicians that has ever visited us. The choir of the Presbyterian church is to be complimented upon bringing such a high class musical attraction to this little town, but after all expenses were paid a neat little sum was netted by the choir.

The annual Christmas tree entertainment in connection with the Presbyterian church Sunday school will be held in the opera house on the 21st of December in the evening. The children are hard at work preparing the program.

The formal opening of the Deep Creek school house took place on the evening of the 26th inst. The weather was favorable and a large crowd gathered in the new building to enjoy the program which had been prepared by the children under the direction of Miss Mason, the teacher. Mr. John Plucker occupied the chair and after a few well chosen remarks in his usual genial manner, the program of songs, recitations and dialogues was rendered most satisfactorily, after which refreshments were served and the ladies of Deep Creek well sustained their reputation. A vote of thanks was then passed for the help given by visiting friends and very enjoyable evening closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

BEMINA

This locality is sadly in need of a saw mill. Plenty of timber and plenty of settlers, a saw mill should prove a bonanza. There is some talk of several parties coming in, but as yet no definite arrangements seem to have been made.

A meeting of the electors was held recently in the school here to arrive at some conclusions with regard to the formation of a road district. It was decided that it was desirable to form a district separate from the one already formed at Edson. As the settlers are beginning to fence in their quarters, roadmaking will soon be imperative.

Mr. Telford of Edson has secured a homestead in this vicinity and expects to move to it next spring. Mr. Telford has been conducting services every Sunday evening in the school house and should prove a valuable addition.

A surprise party and impromptu dance was thoroughly enjoyed last evening at Mr. Ed. Wilson's.

A bridge is being constructed across the Wabush Creek on the base line between here and Edson under the supervision of Councillor Mills.

RUNAWAYS CAUGHT

Bulletin Special.

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 26.—A. D. McKenzie returned to Calgary on Saturday evening and went up to Penhold with his daughter, who was taken from his home and who disappeared so mysteriously about the last of October. Mr. McKenzie has had quite a chase after the runaways and captured them in a very clever manner. It appears that Miss McKenzie last home and went away with Roy Fleming and it was the apparent intention of Walter Shuh to follow the runaways and Fleming would marry Miss Hockett and Shuh would marry Miss McKenzie. Mr. McKenzie had Shuh arrested for conspiracy in kidnapping, but the latter was discharged on Saturday, November 17th and immediately upon his discharge left to go to Fleming and the girls. McKenzie followed him and by riding in baggage cars he was able to evade the man he was shadowing. They went south to Macleod, then went west to Fernie B.C., where Shuh bought a ticket for Spokane. McKenzie wired Detective McDonald of Spokane, to arrest Shuh on the arrival of the train and then quietly took the seating car behind his victim and awaited results. When Shuh stepped off the train he was promptly taken into custody and from letters in his possession and information secured from him the runaways were found to be in Missoula, Montana. Accompanied by Detective McDonald and Shuh, McKenzie went to Missoula and found his daughter. She was staying at the Niagara Hotel, with Miss Hockett, and Fleming was at the same hotel. The girl at once accompanied her father home but as far as is known Fleming and Miss Hockett are still at Missoula. Miss McKenzie is a rather nice looking girl, and attractive in appearance. She is only sixteen years of age and is very girlish in her manner and doubtless scarcely realized what she was doing. It appears that when she and Miss Hockett and Fleming left Penhold, they drove to Crookston, it is across country to Cochrane, and from there to Morley, after which they made a detour through the state of Washington until they reached the town in which they were located. Mr. McKenzie is delighted to have his daughter home again and she looks as though it was a relief to get back. It is loud in the papers of U.S.P.R. for capturing him in following Shuh by giving him all possible information and allowing him to travel in baggage cars. Some very interesting letters were found upon Shuh when arrested, some of them from the runaways, and some he was carrying to them, all of which would indicate that the taking of Miss McKenzie was a plot in which several people took a hand and that a good deal of assistance was given to the runaways from rather surprising quarters, of which more will be learned in the future investigation which Mr. McKenzie is determined to have.

FROM DAY TO DAY

IN THE CITY'S SOLITUDE.

Night: and the sound of voices in the street.
Night: and the happy laughter where they meet.
The glad boy lover and the trusting girl.
But thou—thou—cannot find thee, Sweet!

Night: and far off the lighted pavements roar.
Night: and the dark of sorrow keeps my door.
I reach my hand out trembling in the dark,
Thy hand comes not with comfort any more.

WE MAY NOT JUDGE.

Not one of us knows the real truth about any one of the rest of us.
We think we do. We criticize, pass judgment and condemn. But our knowledge is too frail to give us foundation for even private judgment, let alone the wordy summing up we are so prone to rush into. In Mr. Howell's latest book is a splendid definition of truth.

"Is not truth," asks one of his characters, "that absolute entirety of fact which includes not only every circumstance, but also every extension in motive and temperament?"
In the light of this, how wholly impossible for one human mind to grasp the whole truth about another! This other may say things that sound suspicious; he may do things that seem questionable; he may be guilty of that which the habit of our life and thought has taught us to condemn.

Yet what do you and I know but the mere outward act?"

To judge it justly, as it should be judged, we should need to know every circumstance that, perhaps, the man himself does not know, because they began long back, before he was born. We should need to know every fine shade of his temperament—which none can know but the powers that made him. Not even himself. We should need to know every possible and most subtle motive—which even the offender himself may not fully grasp. If this infinite knowledge is necessary to a right understanding, how utterly ridiculous is it for any of us to sit in judgment upon our fellows!

And this is true in the small things of life, as well as the greater. We cannot know. We have no right to judge superficially.

THE CHEERFUL SOUL.

Whatever woman may be in her hours of ease—perhaps uncertain, coy and hard to please—when the world goes wrong and trouble hangs black above the home, it is she, nine times out of ten, who looks into the face of the future most serenely.

Mark Twain, in his autobiography, pays this tribute to his wife, who died several years ago in Florence: "She was always cheerful, and she was always able to communicate her cheerfulness to others. During the nine years that we spent in poverty and debt, she was always able to reason me out of my despair and find a bright side to the clouds, and make me see it. In all that time I never knew her to utter a word of regret concerning our altered circumstances, nor did I ever know her children to do the like. For she had taught them, and they drew their fortitude from her."

Too many men get discouraged too easily. They should learn a lesson from the women. When business goes to the bad, you should grin, and the quicker will fortune be retrieved. There is no better medicine for shattered health than a sunny spirit. The discouraged man is beaten before the battle begins; the cheerful man always has a fighting chance.

THE WORTH OF ENERGY.

Edmonton fortunately has no lack of energy or courage. We meet with it every day, and see in it the promise of the city's future greatness. In this north-country we look for something of the Norsemen's traditional sturdy courage.

The ancient crest of a pickaxe, with the motto of "Either I will find a way or make one," was an expression of the sturdy independence which to this day distinguishes the descendants of the Northerners. Indeed nothing could be more characteristic of the Scandinavian mythology than that it had a god with a hammer.

A man's character is seen in small matters; and from even so slight a test as the mode in which a man wields a hammer his energy may in some measure be inferred. Thus an eminent Frenchman hit off in a single phrase the characteristic quality of the inhabitants of a particular district in which a friend of his proposed to settle and buy land.

"Beware," said he, "of making a purchase there; I know the men of that department; the pupils who come from it to our veterinary school at Paris do not strike hard upon the anvil; they want energy; and you will not get a satisfactory return on any capital you may invest there."

A fine and just appreciation of character, indicating the thoughtful observer, and strikingly illustrative of the fact that it is the energy of the individual men that gives strength to a state; and confers a value even upon the very soil which they cultivate. As the French proverb has it: "Tant vaut l'homme, tant vaut sa terre."

SOCIAL.

Mrs. Alex. May entertained a few friends informally at cards last night.

Miss Egerton left yesterday for Fort Saskatchewan, and will be absent for two or three weeks.

Mrs. Riddell, accompanied by Master Harold Riddell, leaves next week for the Pacific coast and will be absent for a couple of months.

The engagement is announced of Mr. Christopher McKee, manager of the Alberta Lumber company, Vancouver, and Margaret, daughter of the late Mr. John Barron, of Toronto.

Mrs. J. C. McDougall will hold her post-nuptial reception at her new home, 424 Third street, on Thursday, Nov. 22nd, from four to six. Mrs. McDougall will in future receive on the fourth Thursday of each month.

Miss Kathleen Kirchhoff, of Brandon, who is in Ottawa with her mother, Senator Kirchhoff, for the session, was thrown from her horse while out riding, but is making a fair recovery from her injuries.

Mrs. C. J. Reid was the hostess on Thursday last at an enjoyable tea given in honor of her guest, Mrs. C. Reid, of Cranbrook, B.C. The tea table was effectively decorated with glowing yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Bolton poured the tea, while Mrs. Noble served the ice cream. The Misses Tait, Grady and Steeves, of Alberta College, attended to the needs of the guests.

ALBERTA MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

An important step has been taken in the development of music in Alberta. At the meeting of Choir-masters held in Mr. Stuebel's rooms on Saturday it was decided to have in Edmonton each year during May or June a musical festival to be called the Alberta Musical Festival.

The Honorary Patrons of the festival are: His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. Mr. Rutherford.

The officers are: Mr. Vernon Barford, chairman and Mr. Sydney W. Morris, secretary treasurer. The executive committee comprises the various choir masters of the city with Mr. Hook, Mr. Christensen and Mr. Hendra. This committee will be further added to from all the towns in the province, a local secretary in each to be a member of the general executive.

Letters are being sent this week to all the clergymen and choir-masters in the province asking suggestions in regard to this new provincial organization, and requesting that they call meetings as soon as possible to appoint local committees with local secretaries. The latter are stated previously to form part of the executive body of the festival.

At each Festival there will be three competitions: 1st—Open to all Choral Societies in Alberta.

2nd—Open to all Choral Societies in Alberta.

3rd—A double mixed quartette, open to all Choral and Choral Societies in Alberta.

GOSSIP.

(Monday November 26)

Paris opening.—Cable: wheat 1-4 lower to 1-4 higher. Flour unchanged.

Liverpool close.—Wheat 1-3 lower to 1-3 higher; corn 1-8d. higher.

Chicago car.—Wheat 31; corn 18 1/2; Oats 22 1/2.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Primary, weekly receipts.

Wheat 5,566,000 vs. 6,010, vs. 7,755,000; corn 2,901,000, vs. 4,441,000.

Shipment Wheat, 3,311,000, vs. 3,196,000, vs. 3,191,000; Corn 2,240,000 vs. 2,333,000 vs. 2,274,000.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Hot receipts, 42,000; left over 5,167; prices 10c lower; heavy 5.60 to 6.2; mixed 5.80.

Cattle, 37,000, mostly 10 to 15c lower; sheep 38,000; market steady to 10c lower.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—There is a much better feeling in the wheat pit and the buying of the Valentine houses and good general commission house demand is giving prices a boost.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Corn.—The wheat or some of the larger speculators are quiet markets. Small receipts and large shipments coupled with an excellent cash demand will, we believe, in the near future, result in a sharp turn.

Provisions.—The large packers have led the selling the last few days and now with a very liberal supply of hogs and a lower price range at the yards it would not seem unlikely if they would be able to cause a sharp decline in prices. Very little bull help can be expected from Liverpool as the cables were weak this morning and the smaller shorts were run in on the last advance.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Oats are suffering the same as the other grain from lack of speculation and have enjoyed an extreme change of less than 3-4 for the past week. Stocks of contract oats are the highest known in years, and with a little increase in the speculation on the bull side, we look for a better market.

SHIPPING THEIR GRAIN.

Owing to the low prices prevailing in the local markets for all kinds of grain, the farmers of the Horse Hills district and some from the country east of Strathcona have decided to ship their grain on their own account. Some who have already done so have netted 25 cents per bushel, which taking into consideration the price in Edmonton and the necessary expenses incident to marketing in town, makes the venture a very profitable one. Farmers estimate that the town expenses of marketing average from one cent to a cent and a half a bushel, which materially reduces the net price. A steady shipment is anticipated from Oliver station during the entire season. A loading platform at that station is greatly needed and steps are being taken by the farmers to bring the matter to the attention of the C. N. R. authorities. The farmers further claim that oats should be as high in Edmonton as in Winnipeg, as the real market for Alberta oats is British Columbia, and that local dealers have no just right to reduce the price to an eastern export basis.

CATTLE SHIPMENT.
Calgary Alberta: "The shipment of cattle this year will be greater than any previous year, as far as Western Canada is concerned," said Mr. McMullen, live stock commissioner of the C. P. R.

"The shipments from Swift Current to the mountains will be 12,000 more than on any previous year. "The shipment of export cattle will total 65,000 head. This does not include the butcher cattle shipped out of the province, which amounts to about 20,000 to 25,000 cattle. "The prices during the year, though not high, have been steady, and the trade has been fairly remunerative. "When asked for the reason of the large shipment, Mr. McMullen said that it was due to the fact that three

New York, Nov. 26.—Canadian Pacific is well supported and advances much easier than it declines. It is bound to sell much higher.

New York, Nov. 26.—The outlook this morning is good for substantial advance in the stock market. The heavy selling of Saturday was just what has been needed to clear the speculative atmosphere and most of the small longs who loaded up on the advance were sold out and the stocks went in the strong hands. The bank statement Saturday was a favorable document, although its publication was the signal for renewed selling. It is thought likely that such a favorable showing will bring about some heavy buying later today.

The low priced rails and some of the medium price stocks are a fine purchase on this little dip.

London stock close—Erie dec 1-4; Atch dec 1-3; L. N. dec 1-8; Pa. dec 3-8; S. P. dec 1-8; St. P. dec 1-4; U. P. dec 1-8; U. S. dec 1-8; U. S. Q. adv 1-8. New York, Nov. 26.—Rock Island earnings are a sufficient basis for all its strength. Continued upward movement will meet plentiful profit taking and short selling, but higher levels will result from intermediate fluctuations. Watch for recessions and buy on them without hesitation.

Prova. may have some irregularity today but we believe on any little further set back there is good chance for scalping profits of the long side and for selling on the bulges for same kind of profits for a little time to come.

years ago, a large number of dogs were brought in from the east, and that these animals were now maturing. "I do not expect that there will be such a large shipment next year for there has not been so much importation since." Mr. McMullen's experience was that the large ranchers were not going out of the ranching business, though some of them were being forced back on account of the pasture difficulty. In some few cases there was a curtailment, but in other places an increase. Never before was there so much money in the cattle business. As steers average about $50 each, the returns to the range amount to about five million dollars.
